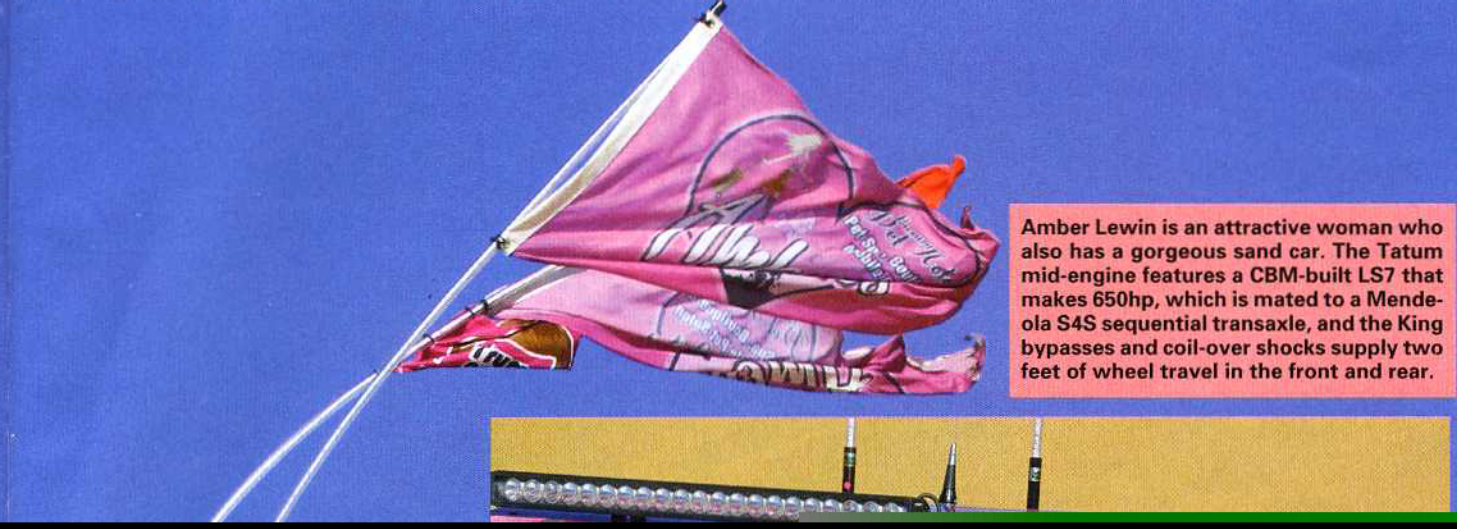
Amber Lewin has got to be one of the luckiest ladies we know. A member of The Ladies of Glamis, a group of women who share their passion for the sand dunes, Amber is also a mother, business woman and a huge animal lover. Don't be deceived by Amber's petite build and friendly smile. Inside this tiny package is a hard-core duner.

Born and raised in Southern California, Amber has been duning since she was five years old. Her mother first introduced her to the sport and she was instantly hooked. At the very young age of seven, Amber saved money by cleaning dog kennels to purchase her neighbor's Indian Mini 50cc dirt bike. Amber's next sand toy was a Honda 125 FourTrax quad. Since then she's owned many other off-road toys, including a custom Polaris RZR with a Z1 engine swap.

Amber's newest sand toy is the "Fifty Shades of Pink" Tatum Motorsports mid-engine car featured here. The build was started



Amber Lewin is an attractive woman who also has a gorgeous sand car. The Tatum mid-engine features a CBM-built LS7 that makes 650hp, which is mated to a Mendeola S4S sequential transaxle, and the King bypasses and coil-over shocks supply two feet of wheel travel in the front and rear.
